GOV. HYDE SPEAKS.

Hon. A. M. Hyde, Republican candidate for governor delivered three addresses to colored people last Wednesday night at Cottage and Vine, Ebenezer Church and St. Stephens Baptist church.

Large crowds greeted him at each place and enthusiasm ran high. Mr. Hyde will be elected by the largest majority ever given a Republican in Missouri.

DO YOU KNOW.

Do you know that election day is the one day on which every man and woman who votes is the political equal of every other man and woman of whatever station in life?

Do you know that on November 2 your vote will count for as much as that of Gov. Cox or Senator Harding or of either of their illustrious wives?

Do you know that on that day you will be as important in shaping the destiny of your country as any person in it?

Do you know that in the long run your vote will spell any victory over bad government that you may desire?

Do you know that your ballot may be the deciding vote that will save your ticket from defeat, break the ring and smash the machine that is in control of local government against the wishes of all fair minded citizens of city and country?

Do you know that your voters in Missouri are your brothers' keeper in South Carolina where colored men are counted out and colored women are not allowed to register unless they can read and explain sections of the civil and criminal codes in an intelligent manner. Do you know that the vote you cast for fair play and justice to all races will strike a blow against race discriminations wherever practiced?

Do you know that you owe it to your country, your family and yourself to allow no hindering cause to prevent you from exercising your will as a freeman on November 2, by mingling your ballot with that great army of ballots, with those noiseless bird-like bits of paper.

"Those ballots that come down as still as snowflakes fall upon the sea; Yet execute a freeman's will As lightning does the will of God."

A MUSICIAN FOR THE MOVIES GONE.

Lingering long under the ravages of consumption, "Bob Austin, the well known piano player at the Gem Theatre finally passed away. The soul that had been reflected upon the great canvas of human experience reached the termination of the reel, and "The End" the fate of all, was flashed upon the screen!

For possibly thirteen years this man played at the piano, interpreting on his beloved instrument every conceivable photo play. If the motion picture is a fair reflector of the real, then what vast information he must have received from instructive film, what dramas must have passed his vision! And he, ever moving in the spirit and atmosphere of the scenes depicted, has contributed wonderfully to the vividness of such with his interpretative music. Austin may not have been a great artist but he certainly was a hard worker. Ere the theatre boasted of a pipe organ he used to delight the audience with the latest popular airs at intervals. For the comedies he offered the lively— for the intense moments there was the soft pitched note— for beautiful scenes and the trying hour there was the tuneful and limpid ballad— when the plot led in caves and the characters walked with stealth there was the weird note— a murder scene was sure to elicit the tragic tune of "Heart's Flowers" while the marriage ceremony being performed was the inevitable signal for Mendelssohn's celebrated wedding march.

So this musician worked at his job faithfully, pleasantly with grand enthusiasm. He gave what the world calls service. To his employer he was true, and it is said, his employer was true to him. In the nature of things, as we humans understand it, he is here no more, but according to the immortal plan he is somewhere, and fancy fondly forms the idea of a higher music and nobler picture.

THEY SAY

—That none are so busy these days as the pawnbrokers.

—That the mills of the Gods grind slow but they grind exceedingly fine.

—That spies and tale-bearers do more harm than the poisoned bowl or the assassin's dagger.

—That the outside appearance of a package doesn't indicate what's on the inside. Not by any means.

—That when a Negro takes a drink of the new fangled "Jake and Chloral" he should immediately be handcuffed and shackled.

—That when a woman gets married she thinks life is one glad sweet song, but after a few years of wedded bliss she imagines the song has lost its tune.

—That the question "when is a woman old?" has never been answered to the satisfaction of all the women. No and never will be.

—That many accidents are caused by men falling to get out of the way of vehicles watching the women with the new short skirts.

—That in a certain state it was ruled that honest craps games would be tolerated by the officials. Whose guinea to be de judge?

—That that screaming you heard on Euclid avenue the other night was not a certain man about town chastising his wife but was simply an opera star practising for her coming concert. Uh-hu, Uh-hu.

—Call Fairfax 380 or Fairfax 4122.

NOVELTY

The most fashionable and also most practical for your self defense against all attacks is the

KNIFE REVOLVER

Which you use every day as a knife, and other times you can use it as a revolver. 22 calibre.

KNIFE-REVOLVER is no playing, but is the most fashionable and most practical thing. When it is put together it looks like any pocket-knife. 2 inches long. The knife blades are made of the best steel and the cover is nickel plated. The bullets are hidden in the knife, and also the blades. When you need a knife you just open it and you can use it—and in case of danger you just pull the trigger and it gives 22-caliber shots.

Most truly, this is a good invention. These knives are sold at other places at $12 or more—but we will sell them, a short time only, at $6.65, that is at the cost price, as we want the people to get more acquainted with these knives.

We have not a very large stock of these knives, but about 3,000, so don't delay this or later, but write for one TODAY. Send only 25c in silver or stamps with your order, and the rest you will pay when you receive this fashionable KNIFE-REVOLVER.

If entire amount is sent with the order, you will receive a beautiful and valuable gift. Cut this advertisement out, enclose it and mail to
